INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM 101S

INTRODUCTION

Form 101S is designed to simplify the reporting requirements for Wisconsin inheritance tax purposes in those estates where the surviving spouse is the only person receiving property upon a decedent's death (see exception below) and no inheritance tax will be due.

This form may be used regardless of the type of proceeding (for example, formal or informal probate, termination of joint tenancy, summary settlement, summary assignment, register of deeds form, or transfer by affidavit) used to administer the decedent's estate or to transfer property to the surviving spouse.

WHEN THIS FORM CAN BE USED

This form may be used if the decedent died on or after July 1, 1982 and the surviving spouse, with one exception, is the only person receiving property because of the decedent's death.

EXCEPTION: If natural or adopted issue of a decedent receive property totalling $5,000 or less, this form may still be used. "Issue" includes the decedent's children (including a son-in-law and daughter-in-law) and grandchildren. The property received by all issue must be described in Schedule A below.

If any of these conditions is not met, Wisconsin inheritance tax return, Form 101 or Form 101A, must be filed.

WHERE TO GET FORMS AND INFORMATION

Information, additional forms and assistance are available at the following Department of Revenue office:

4622 University Avenue, Room 112 Madison, Wisconsin Telephone (608) 266-1231	or write to— Post Office Box 8904 Madison, WI 53708

HOW TO PREPARE FORM 101S

Form 101S is easy to complete. Simply read the form carefully and provide all the information requested. If you indicate on Form 101S that the decedent had a will, trust agreement(s) and/or marital property agreement(s) at death, submit copies of all existing documents with Form 101S when it is filed. If any of the information and/or documents are omitted, the processing of this form will be delayed.

Since no inheritance tax is owed by a surviving spouse, it is not necessary to list the decedent's property passing to the surviving spouse nor any deductions (for example, funeral expenses, last illness expense, debts or administration expenses) pertaining to the decedent's estate or property.

Be sure to file both copies of this form with the Department.

CERTIFICATE DETERMINING NO INHERITANCE TAX

After the Department has reviewed this form, it will stamp Copy 1 indicating that no inheritance tax is due. Copy 1 will be returned to the estate, generally within 4 weeks after Form 101S is filed.

RELEASING JOINT PROPERTY

For deaths on or after July 1, 1982, any personal property which a surviving spouse is entitled to receive from a decedent may be transferred to the surviving spouse without obtaining the consent of the Department. Personal property includes such items as stocks, bonds, notes, mortgages, savings and checking accounts, and contents of safe deposit boxes.

CLOSING CERTIFICATE FOR FIDUCIARIES

If this certificate is required in any Circuit Court proceeding held to close an estate, a copy of the inventory must accompany the request for this certificate.

SCHEDULE A — PROPERTY PASSING TO

Indicate below the property passing to each issue. Remember, if the total value of all property passing to all issue exceeds, $5,000, this form may not be used.

For inheritance tax purposes, property must be valued at its fair market value as of the decedent's death. If you have any questions regarding how to determine fair market value, please call us.

Name of Issue	Relationship	Property Received	(indicate nature of property, its fair market value at decedent's death and how value determined)
